NOVELTIES FROM THE SCHOOL

Language in Life 2012

Stronger than ever

2011 has gone by and we are more than ready to begin a new semester. So, buckle up and join us, 'cause we are full of good news and we can't wait to share them with all of you!

2012 REGISTRATION

In São Paulo, the classes started on January 30th many of our teachers' schedules are being finalized. If you haven't contacted the school regarding this semester, please do it as soon as possible as to guarantee you will have the preferred schedule

CAMBRIDGE EXAMS

Last year, we had 22 of our students taking the test, and we are very proud of the effort they all put into it. The results will come soon and we are sure they will be the best possible.

Who is ready for this big challenge in 2012?

OPENED NEW OFFICE IN SP

Language in Life is very happy to announce that, after our successful branch in Florianópolis, SC, a new office in São Paulo inaugurated in 2012, this time in the neighborhood of Moema.

The new office's coordinator is Laís, who many of you already know as a talented teacher. Any doubts or comments you may have along the semester you can contact both offices (you can find information on our website). We will be happy to assist you, as always.

EVALUATION WEEK 2011

At the end of last year, we also had our now traditional Evaluation Week, a period dedicated to assess our students and establish goals for the following year. The school is very satisfied with the results, as through them we could see how well the students take in Language in Life's methodology and are able to show flow and fluency in the English language.
